

Hardwick Won First Game.

Injury to Lawrence Gagner of the F. C. A. Defeated Them.—Second Contest Here.—Other Games.

The first game in the series between F. C. A. and Hardwick was played at Hardwick Friday evening, before a crowded house. Hardwick won in a third period rally by a score of 21 to 10, but not before they were given a good score by the St. Johnsbury five. At the end of the first period F. C. A. led 4 to 2 and they maintained a lead through the second which ended 8 to 7. At this point Lawrence Gagner, one of the star guards, was pulled out on account of an injury and at the same time Hugh Underwood, a former St. Johnsbury boy, was sent in by Hardwick. He showed in the next few minutes that he hadn't quite forgotten how they played the game "back home" by ringing three goals in quick succession and putting the game on ice for Hardwick. The boys were given excellent treatment by the large crowd and though the game was necessarily rough at times, F. C. A. has no complaint as to the result. The next game in the series will be played here and should F. C. A. win, a deciding game will probably be played on a neutral floor. The line up:

Hardwick, A. A. F. C. A.
Cass, rg. Ig. Lacroix
L. Johnson, lf. rg. E. Gagner
Underwood, lf. rg. E. Gagner
W. Johnson, c. Demers
Marshall, rg. lf. Bernier
Drown, L. Johnson, lg. rg. Duffie
Score, Hardwick A. 21, F. C. A. 10.
Goals from floor, L. Johnson 2, W. Johnson 2, Cass, Underwood, Marshall, Drown, Duffie, L. Johnson, 1 each.
Goals from fouls, Hardwick A. 5, F. C. A. 2.
Referee, Fraser. Time, 15 minutes. Score, 21 to 10.
Y. M. C. A. vs. Danville.

The Camp Abnaki team of the Y. M. C. A. got the jump on Danville High at the start Saturday evening at the gymnasium and the visitors were never in the running. Lynch was out for a record in goal shooting and before the game ended eight were credited to him. Although Danville played hard and stayed to the finish they were forced to admit the superiority of the "Campers" when they read the final result of 37 to 8. The line up:

Use the American Throat Tablets.

ST. JOHNSBURY CENTER.

Don Gray and family move this week from St. Johnsbury onto the William Wallace place.

D. W. Jeness cut his middle finger on his right hand quite badly last week.

Miss Isabel Forsyth spent a part of last week at Springfield visiting friends.

Mrs. Edward Stone of Boston was in the place on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. H. J. Kelley, who has been sick for some time, has not been as well as usual. Mrs. Lane of St. Johnsbury is caring for her.

N. H. Page, who has been visiting at West Newbury, Mass., is expected home this week.

The Center Literary club meet this week with D. Q. Woodruff on Thursday evening. This meeting promises to be one of interest. A lady who lived for a time in Mexico, will be present and dress in Mexican costume. All are cordially invited to come who are interested.

M. D. Park has recovered from his sickness somewhat and is able to be in the store again.

At the Green Mountain Grange on Saturday evening March 5th the members have prepared an interesting program. One of the features will be a farce, entitled, "The Peace-makers."

Between 20 and 30 of the members of Green Mountain Grange went to North Danville on Thursday evening. The grange here furnished a supper and the North Danville Grange furnished supper. All had a pleasant time.

Miss Florence Price, the State Secretary of the Home Missionary society, will speak at the Congregational church on Sunday. Saturday afternoon at three o'clock she will give the Juniors a talk. All the boys and girls are invited to be present at this meeting.

The many friends of John Libereau will be glad to hear that he was some better on Monday.

Use the American Throat Tablets.

Church Notes.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Pythian Hall, Sunday morning service 10.45. Subject, "Man." The reading room is in the Bank block, corner Main Street and Eastern avenue and is open daily except Sunday from 2.30 to 5 p. m., also Tuesday, and Saturday evenings from 7.30 to 9.

The services at St. Andrew's church during the week will be evening service tonight at 7.30 and regular Lenten service Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Next Sunday there will be Morning Prayer at 10 A. M., Holy Communion at 10.30 A. M., and Evening Prayer at 7 P. M.

The South church has voted to send Rev. S. G. Barnes to Burlington to attend the Laymen's Missionary meeting. Crawford Ranney and Henry Fairbanks will also attend. There will be services at the church Sunday in charge of local people on missionary subjects.

At the First Baptist church Sunday morning the pastor will preach the third sermon on the Lord's Prayer, subject "God's Fatherhood and Our Brotherhood." The subject of the evening sermon will be "Encompassed with Bees." At the regular weekly social on Friday evening a program and games, will be given. Everyone is invited.

Church of the Messiah Universalist, Rev. B. F. Butler, Pastor, Preaching by the pastor at 10.30. Theme—Prayer. Sunday School at 12 A. M. Classes for all. Y. P. C. U. at 7 P. M. Topic, Does it Pay to be Religious? After 9 P. C. U. there will be a rehearsal of the young people's chorus. The Y. P. C. U. Tuesday evening at the home of John Montgomery. The L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. Farkush on Thursday afternoon.

Use the American Liver Tablets.

March Meeting Woman's Club.

The March meeting of the St. Johnsbury Woman's Club will be held Monday evening March 7 in Pythian Hall. The program, which is under the direction of the History and Literature committee, will consist of "Sketches of Travel" by some of our recent travelers and as follows:

A few Scottish and English Castles. The Twelve Great Paintings of the World and their Painters. Miss Katharine Bingham. Some Literary Shrines. Corwin P. Palmer.

All of the topics will be illustrated by stereoscopic views, and a treat is promised to members and friends. Remember the change of hour, 8 p. m., Monday, March 7.

Use the American Liver Tablets.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

Makes Kidneys and Bladder Right

Use the American Liver Tablets.

McEnelly's Famous Orchestra

At Bertrand's Hall, Tuesday, March 8th.

Swiss Brown Contest.

Rev. E. E. Grant Assumes Leadership in the Contest—Good Gain By Mrs. H. L. Walter the Past Week.

"The Little Minister" comes in as the leader of the CALEDONIAN'S Swiss Brown contest this week with the great gain of 6269 for the week and a total vote of 9896. This puts him at the head with his nearest competitor G. W. Cook with a vote of 8557. The contest is nearing the home stretch now and the spurts by different ones gives new interest to the game. You can't pick the winner yet but you can hustle to help your friends. Another feature of the past week is the gain by Mrs. H. L. Walter of East Burke, who has 2432 votes more than she did a week ago. She is not leader yet, neither is she a quitter, and it is fighters of her class that will make the remaining weeks a puzzle. Cook gained 1274 last week and McQuig gained 1303.

Unless there is a hitch somewhere there will be some interesting news next week. Meanwhile let everyone who has his eye on the goal keep hustling.

Twelve to One.

[Written for the CALEDONIAN.] They call this a Swiss Brown contest. There are twelve that want the money. There are twelve that want the cow.

So it's twelve to one for money. O'er all this world's broad path; But just remember this please: It's Lang who wants that calf.

Now all of us need money. And Lang with all the rest. But he wants the cow that's sure to make For him a good big butter test.

So farmers all both far and near Who read this paper now, Why not do all that you can do To help Lang win that cow.

A WORKER.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met at the home of Mrs. George Spaulding, Wednesday, Feb. 23, the occasion being a memorial service for Frances E. Willard. The devotion exercises were led by the president, Mrs. H. N. Turner. The subject of the meeting was "A Beautiful Life." The program was in the hands of Mrs. Frelove Spaulding and was well carried out by all who participated.

The musical numbers consisted of a piano solo by Miss Edna Blanchard and two vocal solos, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," and "Beyond the Smiling and the Weeping," by Miss Katherine Morrison.

Miss Blanche Spaulding read from "The Beautiful Sayings of Frances E. Willard," some happily chosen quotations. Rev. B. F. Butler read an interesting incident of the crusade days, and an account of Miss Willard's experience when traveling in a freight caboose.

The address of the afternoon was by Rev. F. S. Tolman, and was a deeply interesting account of the life of Miss Willard, showing how her early prayer that her life might be made valuable, was abundantly fulfilled. He said the secret of her success and power was in becoming completely engrossed in a great conviction this conviction was worthy of sacrifice on her part, and she was willing to sacrifice all that was necessary.

In closing Mr. Tolman added some practical suggestions and asked each to get a first hand knowledge of conditions and needs in our town giving needy lives the benefit of the personal touch. He made a strong plea for the ladies and lasses, saying, "I think the time has come in St. Johnsbury to keep children off the streets at night."

Following the program a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served. Flowers were sent to the sick through Mrs. Emma Houston, the district nurse.

Use the American Throat Tablets.

March Meeting Woman's Club.

The March meeting of the St. Johnsbury Woman's Club will be held Monday evening March 7 in Pythian Hall. The program, which is under the direction of the History and Literature committee, will consist of "Sketches of Travel" by some of our recent travelers and as follows:

A few Scottish and English Castles. The Twelve Great Paintings of the World and their Painters. Miss Katharine Bingham. Some Literary Shrines. Corwin P. Palmer.

All of the topics will be illustrated by stereoscopic views, and a treat is promised to members and friends. Remember the change of hour, 8 p. m., Monday, March 7.

Use the American Liver Tablets.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

Makes Kidneys and Bladder Right

Use the American Liver Tablets.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

Makes Kidneys and Bladder Right

Use the American Liver Tablets.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

Makes Kidneys and Bladder Right

Use the American Liver Tablets.

Social Events.

The Misses May entertained the U. M. Picnic club and a few other friends on Tuesday evening at a Washington party. Various stunts with cherries furnished entertainment and a hatchet hunt was enjoyed, the winner in each contest receiving a prize appropriate to the day, cherries, hatchets, a picture of Washington, flags, and so on. Supper was served in the dining room which was decorated with flags and pictures of George and Martha Washington. The table decorations were, cherries, the napkins and place card had cherries on them and the center piece was a Washington pie decorated with cherries and streamers of red white and blue ribbon, each ribbon attached to a favor.

Miss Ione Barrett entertained a company of the seniors at the academy and members of the class of 1909, on last week Tuesday evening. Games were played and refreshments served, the ice cream and its cherry garnishing being served on a blue plate with the national colors to honor the "Father of his country."

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wadleigh entertained the members of the 500 club and a few friends on Tuesday evening of last week to celebrate the tenth anniversary of their marriage. The supper was set. Mr. Wadleigh spent in playing 500, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, and the guests presented Mr. and Mrs. Wadleigh with a small reminder of the occasion.

Mrs. J. W. Bigelow very delightfully entertained three tables at 500 Thursday afternoon later serving her guests a delicious supper.

Miss Glenn M. Tisdale entertained a party of friends at a few of his little friends at supper Wednesday evening. The table and house were decorated with cherries and hatchets. After supper games were played and a hunt for hatchets enjoyed, Paul West and Perley Delworth winning the prizes.

Mrs. Fred G. Bundy entertained three tables of ladies at 500 Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Rufus J. Thurston of Boston. After playing, a dainty supper was served by the hostess.

The M. T. O. 500 club was entertained last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hovey.

A merry company of friends and neighbors of Miss Mary Steele gave her a surprise party Wednesday evening in honor of her birthday. The evening was spent in playing 500, refreshments were served and Miss Steele was presented with a ring by her guests.

Eleven couples enjoyed a barge ride to Barnet Thursday evening to attend the play "Neighbor Jackwood," given by the Village Improvement Society.

On Wednesday evening 24 members of the Shepley Club, a broken circle from the home of D. P. Healey to wish him success in his new work. The evening was pleasantly spent in social talk and James Cosgrove in behalf of the knights presented Mr. Healey with a K. of C. charter and a smoking set. Mr. Healey responded with a cordial word of thanks. During the week the employers of the Passumpsic Telephone Co., presented Mr. Healey a handsome traveling bag and Monday night he and Mrs. Healey very delightfully entertained the club members to the number of over 30 at their home.

The Old China Club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. A. Stanley and listened to two talks, one by Mrs. A. B. Noyes on "Assyrian, Babylonian and Jewish Pottery" and one by Mrs. L. P. Slack on "History of Chests." The club will meet next Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. George E. Hazen.

The Searchlight Club was entertained Monday evening by Miss Florence Hudson.

Use the American Throat Tablets.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Man of the Hour" at the Colonial, Wednesday, March 9.

"The Man of the Hour," the play by George Broadhurst, which is to be acted here again March 9th, in the Colonial by Mr. Al. Brady and John R. Granger's special company, is unique in one respect. This is that every character in it is describable without the use of the character's name. This would seem to indicate what has all along been claimed for this good and unusual play, that the author did his types from the life and that he is correct. It seems superfluous to add anything in praise of "The Man of the Hour" to what has already been said in these columns; no other play of today appeals more thoroughly to the masses or more thoroughly satisfies them, and it is fair to be as popular ten years from now as it is at the present time. It teaches its lesson in the most effective way and is constantly fascinating and entertaining.

Boston Festival Orchestral Club.

The Boston Festival Orchestral Club, composed of leading soloists of the Boston Festival Orchestra, has for several years been a prominent feature of the concerts given by choral societies desiring the support of an orchestra for the performance of oratorios, cantatas, operas, etc. The Club, led by the concert-master of the Boston Festival Orchestra, is unrivalled in its ability to produce the effect of a larger body of players. In the performance of purely orchestral pieces, the Club is entirely unapproached by any similar organization. At the Colonial, Saturday evening, March 12.

RYEGATE.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLam left on Tuesday for their new home in Calgary, Alberta.

F. H. White started for the west on Thursday of last week. He will visit friends in Chicago and other parts of the West. Mr. White has charge of a cattle car for Irving Gillfillan as far as Chicago.

An oyster supper followed by a dance was held in the hall of the Blue Mountain Grange on Friday evening. George Cochran donated the oysters for the occasion inviting many of the citizens of the community in to celebrate the termination of the long standing debt on the hall.

The Eclectic Club enjoyed a spirited debate on Friday evening. The participants were three of our most popular teachers, Miss Winifred McLam, Miss Mabel Tisdale and Miss Ebbel Tisdale. The papers prepared by each showed careful preparation. There was a large and appreciative audience present.

Mrs. W. L. McLam returned home the last of the week after a prolonged visit with her daughters in St. Johnsbury.

Death of Mr. Hamblet.

The entire community was shocked and greatly saddened last week to hear of the death of George A. Hamblet at the Frost Hospital at Chelsea, Mass., Thursday morning, following an operation on Wednesday. His health had been poor for some time, but he had apparently recovered somewhat within a few months, and attended to his duties as traveling salesman for the Holbrook Grocery Co., until the Friday before his death. He was accompanied to Chelsea Saturday, Feb. 19, by his brother-in-law, Elmer L. French, who is a trustee of the Frost Hospital, and Mrs. Hamblet went there Tuesday.

Mr. Hamblet was born in Morgan, 47 years ago, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hamblet, and before coming here resided in Barton. He was married to Miss Phebe J. French on Feb. 17, 1886, and they came here nine years ago, where they have since lived. Since 1904 he has been employed by the Holbrook Grocery Co., and previous to that time had been served as traveling salesman by E. M. Taft. He was a member of the I. O. O. F. at Barton, of the St. Johnsbury Council U. C. T., and of the Fat Men's Club.

Mr. Hamblet bore up bravely under his suffering of the past few weeks and his casual acquaintance would not have known that he was not in his usual health. His was a genial, kindly manhood, and he was a general favorite in all circles in which he moved. Besides his brothers and sister he is survived by his wife and one daughter, Miss Caddie B. Hamblet.

The funeral was held at the Universalist church Saturday afternoon, his pastor, Rev. B. F. Butler, officiating. The choir sang two selections and Mrs. James Cosgrove sang a solo, "Shadows." The bearers were S. C. Blodgett, R. E. Kimball, H. E. Palmer, of Woodsville, J. F. Bowles of St. Johnsbury, representatives of the Holbrook Grocery Co., H. C. Blodgett of the Beechnut Beef Co., and E. E. McGaffey of New York, of the Worcester Salt Co. Aside from the bearers there were in attendance a body of 36 traveling men.

Among the relatives and friends from out of town to attend the funeral were his brothers, Fred of West Charleston, Charles H., wife and daughter from Barton, his cousin, Walter Nye and son of Barton, his sister, Mrs. J. F. Taylor and her husband and son, and Miss Jennie French of Glover, his brothers-in-law, Elmer L. French of Chelsea, and Byron F. French of Somerville, Mass.

H. L. McGaffey, manager of the Holbrook Grocery House at Keene, N. H., was delayed en route and was unable to be present.

Among the profusion of beautiful flowers were the following: A wreath from the Men's League of the Church of the Messiah of Colchester, a broken circle from the brothers and sister; a design, the U. C. emblem, a crescent and grip in white roses and violets from St. Johnsbury Council; a horseshoe design, from the Holbrook Grocery Co.; and a wreath from W. S. and Ed. Holbrook, besides numerous designs from absent friends, and an abundance of cut flowers.

In a memorial issued by the Holbrook Grocery Co., the following tribute was paid to their valued employee:

"Mr. Hamblet has been in our employ since 1904, and at that time we had learned to love and admire him for his fine disposition, as well as for his sterling business qualities."

Use the American Throat Tablets.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson

Use the American Throat Tablets.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Man of the Hour" at the Colonial, Wednesday, March 9.

"The Man of the Hour," the play by George Broadhurst, which is to be acted here again March 9th, in the Colonial by Mr. Al. Brady and John R. Granger's special company, is unique in one respect. This is that every character in it is describable without the use of the character's name. This would seem to indicate what has all along been claimed for this good and unusual play, that the author did his types from the life and that he is correct. It seems superfluous to add anything in praise of "The Man of the Hour" to what has already been said in these columns; no other play of today appeals more thoroughly to the masses or more thoroughly satisfies them, and it is fair to be as popular ten years from now as it is at the present time. It teaches its lesson in the most effective way and is constantly fascinating and entertaining.

Boston Festival Orchestral Club.

The Boston Festival Orchestral Club, composed of leading soloists of the Boston Festival Orchestra, has for several years been a prominent feature of the concerts given by choral societies desiring the support of an orchestra for the performance of oratorios, cantatas, operas, etc. The Club, led by the concert-master of the Boston Festival Orchestra, is unrivalled in its ability to produce the effect of a larger body of players. In the performance of purely orchestral pieces, the Club is entirely unapproached by any similar organization. At the Colonial, Saturday evening, March 12.

RYEGATE.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLam left on Tuesday for their new home in Calgary, Alberta.

F. H. White started for the west on Thursday of last week. He will visit friends in Chicago and other parts of the West. Mr. White has charge of a cattle car for Irving Gillfillan as far as Chicago.

An oyster supper followed by a dance was held in the hall of the Blue Mountain Grange on Friday evening. George Cochran donated the oysters for the occasion inviting many of the citizens of the community in to celebrate the termination of the long standing debt on the hall.

The Eclectic Club enjoyed a spirited debate on Friday evening. The participants were three of our most popular teachers, Miss Winifred McLam, Miss Mabel Tisdale and Miss Ebbel Tisdale. The papers prepared by each showed careful preparation. There was a large and appreciative audience present.

Mrs. W. L. McLam returned home the last of the week after a prolonged visit with her daughters in St. Johnsbury.

Use the American Throat Tablets.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Man of the Hour" at the Colonial, Wednesday, March 9.

"The Man of the Hour," the play by George Broadhurst, which is to be acted here again March 9th, in the Colonial by Mr. Al. Brady and John R. Granger's special company, is unique in one respect. This is that every character in it is describable without the use of the character's name. This would seem to indicate what has all along been claimed for this good and unusual play, that the author did his types from the life and that he is correct. It seems superfluous to add anything in praise of "The Man of the Hour" to what has already been said in these columns; no other play of today appeals more thoroughly to the masses or more thoroughly satisfies them, and it is fair to be as popular ten years from now as it is at the present time. It teaches its lesson in the most effective way and is constantly fascinating and entertaining.

Boston Festival Orchestral Club.

The Boston Festival Orchestral Club, composed of leading soloists of the Boston Festival Orchestra, has for several years been a prominent feature of the concerts given by choral societies desiring the support of an orchestra for the performance of oratorios, cantatas, operas, etc. The Club, led by the concert-master of the Boston Festival Orchestra, is unrivalled in its ability to produce the effect of a larger body of players. In the performance of purely orchestral pieces, the Club is entirely unapproached by any similar organization. At the Colonial, Saturday evening, March 12.

RYEGATE.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McLam left on Tuesday for their new home in Calgary, Alberta.

F. H. White started for the west on Thursday of last week. He will visit friends in Chicago and other parts of the West. Mr. White has charge of a cattle car for Irving Gillfillan as far as Chicago.

An oyster supper followed by a dance was held in the hall of the Blue Mountain Grange on Friday evening. George Cochran donated the oysters for the occasion inviting many of the citizens of the community in to celebrate the termination of the long standing debt on the hall.

The Eclectic Club enjoyed a spirited debate on Friday evening. The participants were three of our most popular teachers, Miss Winifred McLam, Miss Mabel Tisdale and Miss Ebbel Tisdale. The papers prepared by each showed careful preparation. There was a large and appreciative audience present.

Mrs. W. L. McLam returned home the last of the week after a prolonged visit with her daughters in St. Johnsbury.

Lenten Organ Recital.

A large number of people availed themselves of the opportunity to attend the organ recital at the North church, Thursday evening, following an excellent program as rendered by George A. Slocum of Pawtucket, R. I. Every beauty of the organ seemed to be brought out, from the delicate pianissimo effects to the brilliancy and grandeur of full organ. In the introduction to the 3rd Act of Lohengrin, which was a favorite, the registration was excellent and delightful orchestral effects were gained. The most brilliant number on the program was the Liszt Rhapsody No. 2, which Mr. Slocum has arranged for the organ from the orchestral score. It presents tremendous technical difficulties. The celerity with which the themes were given out on the pedals was an amazing accomplishment. The extemporizations on six familiar hymns were exceedingly pleasing and varied.

The quartet of the church rendered Buck's Festival Te Deum in a highly creditable manner, and Frank H. Brooks sang "The Lord is my Shepherd" very finely. Miss Alice B. Warden played the organ accompaniments.

After the organ recital a few musical friends were invited to the Manse to meet Mr. Slocum. A very pleasant social time and serving of light refreshments was followed by an informal musical program at which Mrs. Harry M. Cross, Mrs. B. C. Peters, Frank H. Brooks and Dr. L. A. Evans sang solos.

Use the American Liver Tablets.

CADY & BRALEY,

80 Eastern Avenue, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

Fire Insurance Dept.

We represent strong companies and can give you the best of service.

Accident Insurance Dept.

The Standard Accident Company is the largest and strongest company writing the popular Monthly Premium Disability policy for accident and sickness. Most liberal treatment of policy holders.

Stock & Bond Dept.

We are prepared to buy and sell stocks and bonds of all kinds and have the latest Market Letters, Walker's Weekly Copper Letters and other information at our clients' disposal. All business confidential.

N. E. Phone.

Every Woman

Will Soon Vote

For Wash Dresses of some sort as spring is almost in sight. It is time now to purchase materials and prepare for the making of these garments. Don't be contented with something you do not exactly like, when we are ready to show you

The most choice and varied collection of Novelties in Wash Fabrics for Spring.

Among them are about 140 styles of Plaid and Striped Gingham at 12 1/2c yd.

"Silko," the new silk finish Printed Fabric, delicate colorings, at 15c yd.

"Andes Cloth" with all the beauty of a 50c Fabric at 25c yd.

"Parisiana Cotte," that beautiful corded goods in colors, at 25c yd.

Also choice colorings in Milan Satin Stripes, Irish Dimity, Serpentine Crepes in the greatest variety ever.

Crash Suitings, Natural and White Linen. In all the various weights from the Sheer Handkerchief Linen to the Heavy Linen Suiting. Prices 25c, 39c, 45c, 50c, 69c, 75c and $1.00 yard.